Brand New Library Programs Starting in October!

NEW! Are you interested in writing your memoir or just preserving some of your memories for your children and grandchildren? Please join the new memoir writing group on Tuesday, October 6 at 7 PM. Participants will explore personal histories through a variety of writing activities.

Do you need help opening an email account? Do you know how to search on the Internet? Can you add an attachment to a Word document? Come to the library on Thursday mornings before library opens from 9 - 10 AM for basic computer help! NEW!

NEW! Bring your kids to the Love the Earth Camp! Early elementary school students can enjoy arts and crafts, snacks, and special story times all revolving around our beautiful planet. Stop by every second and fourth Saturday of the month at 11 AM to learn about the importance of conservation.

Come to the library directly from school for our Read It program with snacks and reading fun! We'll read Frindle by Andrew Clements, a story about a boy and his pen. Open to ages 5 to 8 on Wednesdays at 3:15 PM. NEW!

NEW! All junior high and high school students are invited to join the new teen book club! Our first meeting will be on Sunday, October 25 at 4 PM to discuss Susan Beth Pfeffer's Life As We Knew It. We will have pizza!

HALLOWEEN EVENTS!

Join us for popular storyteller Bernadette Nason on Thursday, October 8 at 3:30 PM. Nason will entertain with Halloween tales to get us ready for the spooky holiday. The annual Halloween story time and parade will take place on Wednesday, October 28 at 10:30 AM. Meet at the library to sing Halloween songs and read spooky stories, then trick treat around the shopping center in a Halloween parade. All ages are encouraged to attend and, of course, costumes are encouraged! Also stop by the library throughout the month to participate in the pumpkin decorating contest.

Acupuncturist Allison Hebert on Tuesday, October 13 at 4 PM

Special guest Allison Hebert of Mission Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine will give a talk about traditional Chinese medicine on Tuesday, October 13 at 4 PM at the library. Hebert is nationally licensed and board certified in both acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine.

Coming Soon...

Save the date Thursday, November 12 at 7 PM! Charles Buzzard will give a presentation at the library entitled Native American Creativity: Pots and Baskets. He will show and discuss object and they will be passed throughout the audience to get the feel of the labor required to produce this type of art and craft work. Celebrate National American Indian Heritage month at the library in November!
